Dear Mr. Dalleo,

My name is Benne Singletary 332365. I recieved notice of deposition on Thursday, February 8th. I mailed 2 motions out that same evening - a motion for appointment of counsel and a motion for postponement of deposition. The last couple times I've wrote your office I recieved filing notices within 48 hours, so I waited until Monday before I started to worry. It is Tuesday and I haven't heard anything so I ~~am~~ have re-written the motions and am mailing them in a seperate envelope but at the same time as this ~~am~~ letter. I am assuming that the lack of response from your office means that the motions never made it past the D.C.C. mailroom, but if they did make it there, I would still like these two motions (dated 2-13-07) to be filed, if possible, over the first two, because I mentioned grounds in these which I feel ~~are more~~ ~~and~~ ~~will~~ ~~be~~ will possibly be more compelling than those mentioned in the first two.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR TIME AND CONSIDERATION

Sincerely,

Benne Singletary
